Biographical Sketch

Ms Karen A. Morrison is the US Army Parachute Team Safety Manager. In addition to being a retired US Army SFC attack helicopter weapons supervisor, Ms Morrison is also a former active duty member of the Golden Knights, having served over fourteen years on the team.

Ms Morrison enlisted in the Army in 1985. After completing initial entry training she took many adventurous assignments; serving two tours of duty in Germany, two tours of duty at Fort Bragg, N.C., one three year tour at Fort Polk, LA., and another at Fort Ord, CA.

In 1992 Ms. Morrison volunteered to attend the Golden Knights Assessment and Selection Program. Upon being 'knighted' she served two years on the Gold Demonstration Team and three years on the Style and Accuracy Team as a competitor. Ms Morrison left the team to fulfill other Army obligations and returned in 2000 to compete and work in the operations section until her retirement in 2009. Karen began her duties as the USAPT Safety Manager in 2010.

In her free time Karen enjoys spending time with her family and doing anything outdoors.
